To those of us who are graduating from G.H.S., our senior year — with all its fun and excitement — has been the most important. During this year we have enjoyed the many facilities of our new school, we have participated in more clubs and other extracurricular activities, and we have gained more knowledge to help us in the future. Although we regret leaving the halls of G.H.S., we are anticipating the adventures and challenges that lie ahead. As Seniors, we would like to present our memorable year in a picture story so that you, too, may see . . . . . .

THE THINGS WE'VE DONE IN '61

that don't know it very well.
Good luck.

Our Exciting Life At G.H.S

Between every class the flower bed ledge is utilized.

Uh, uh, uh, What am I doin' here ? ? ? ? ?

So that's why we got out eight minutes early for lunch!

Has A Varied Pattern Of Activities

As our summer vacation vanished into September, we began classes for the second year in our new building. Fall slipped in bringing new friends and teachers, organization of clubs, chilly evenings at the football field, and more homework than ever before.

Autumn vanished and December appeared with the Student Council Christmas tree, the annual Y-Teen dance, and a two weeks' vacation.

As December snowed into January, February, and March, the basketball season reached its finale and the Hi-Y dance and Thespian play "Gramercy Ghost" highlighted our extracurricular activities.. April showered us with not only the annual Career Day but also Easter vacation; May bloomed with the Prom, Honor Day, and the senior picnic.

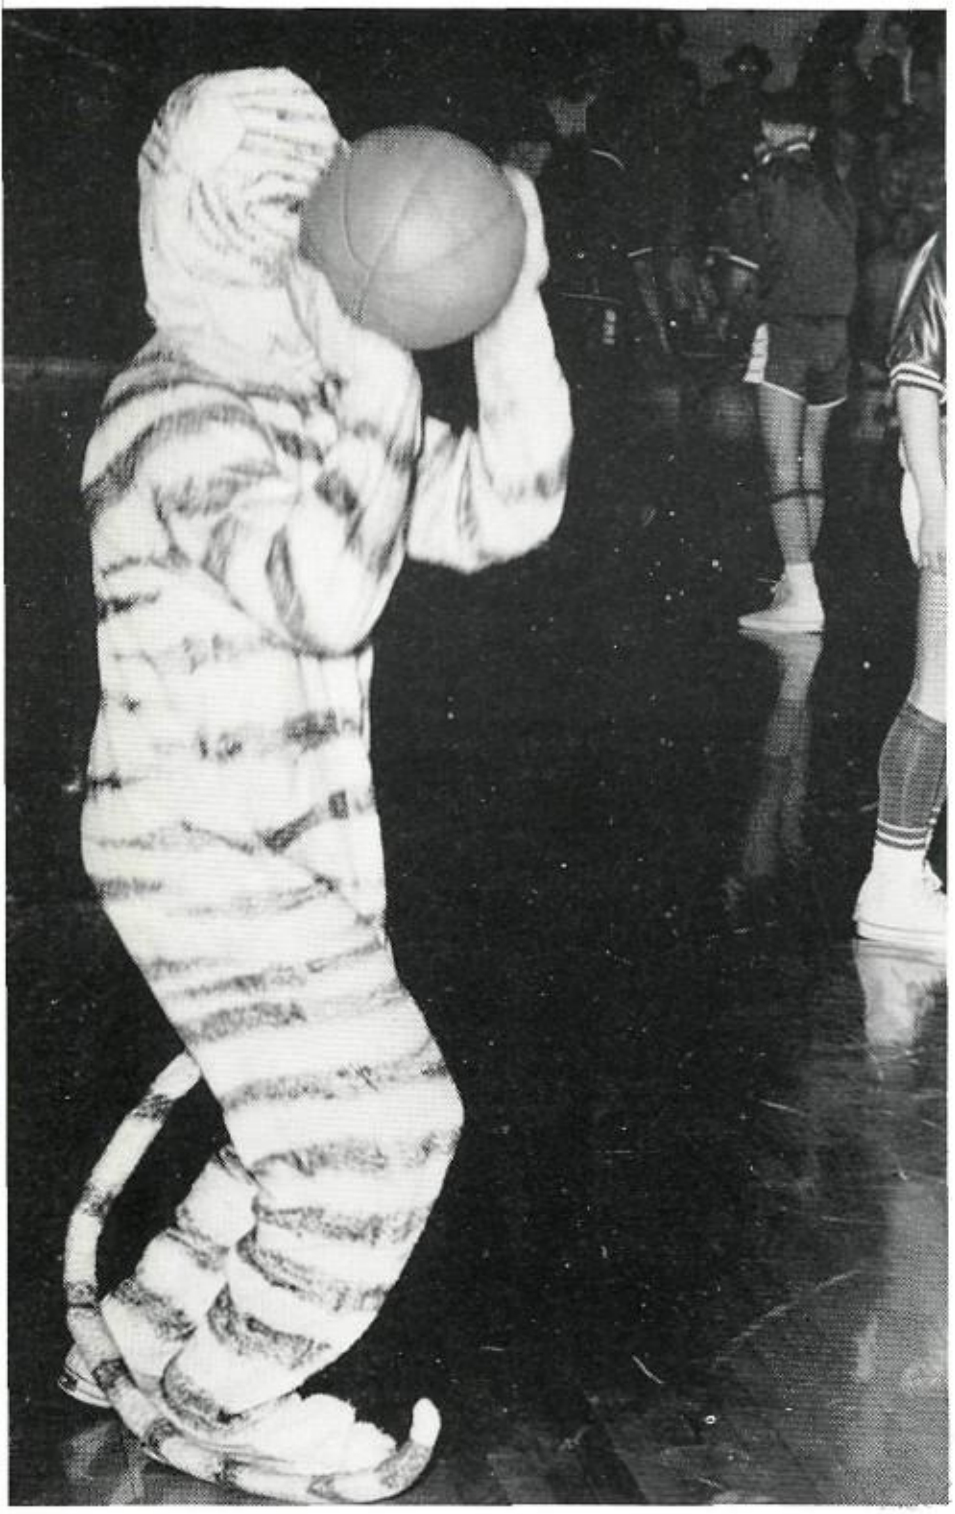
We Seniors will forever remember these gala events as well as the climax of our year . . . Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Putting up or tearing up, boys??

Betty Crocker Award winner Ruth Hartman tries a new recipe.

"Have one on me, kids!" (What he means is, "I have the key; it isn't costing me a cent.")

Wearing Our Gaily Painted Cords



Hand over the money, Tim; no free cokes tonight!

The Tiger joins the game. His new suit was painted this year by Rita Nichols.

You're lucky if you get at the head of the line — right, band members ? ? ? ? ?

We Work At Games, Do Our Lessons, Attend Classes

Hi-Y boys sponsor a blanket toss for the Heart Fund Drive.

After spending several dollars as well as many hours of painting, the Seniors display their senior cords.

. . . And they're off!

And Clown With Our Friends In The Halls

The custodians seem to be having a rough time getting out of the snow drift.

"Quit pushin', you guys! I can't go any faster." Mr. McCammon, Mr. Callaway, and Mr. Bates take the shortcut to classes.

"Don't laugh, Susie; we'll take them home for souvenirs."

"Come on, you two! We'll never get our food!"

Practice Makes Perfect In The Music World

The Music Department, consisting of the band, the choir, and the glee club, is directed by Mr. Don Marketto. Each year the choir and the glee club make several presentations among which are the Christmas program and the county festival. With its concerts, precision marching, and home game performances, the band entertains both the school and the community. For the G.H.S. musician the big events of the year are the state and the local Solo & Ensemble Contests, in which our students have always fared well. In addition to these organizations are the dance band and the pep band, which provide the high school with two different types of music. To conclude each year, an outstanding musician is selected to receive the coveted John Philip Sousa Award.

Nancy Lehe and Joyce Andrews practice their clarinet duet for the Solo & Ensemble Contest.

It really isn't a combo — these soloists just get together to compare their number with those of others.

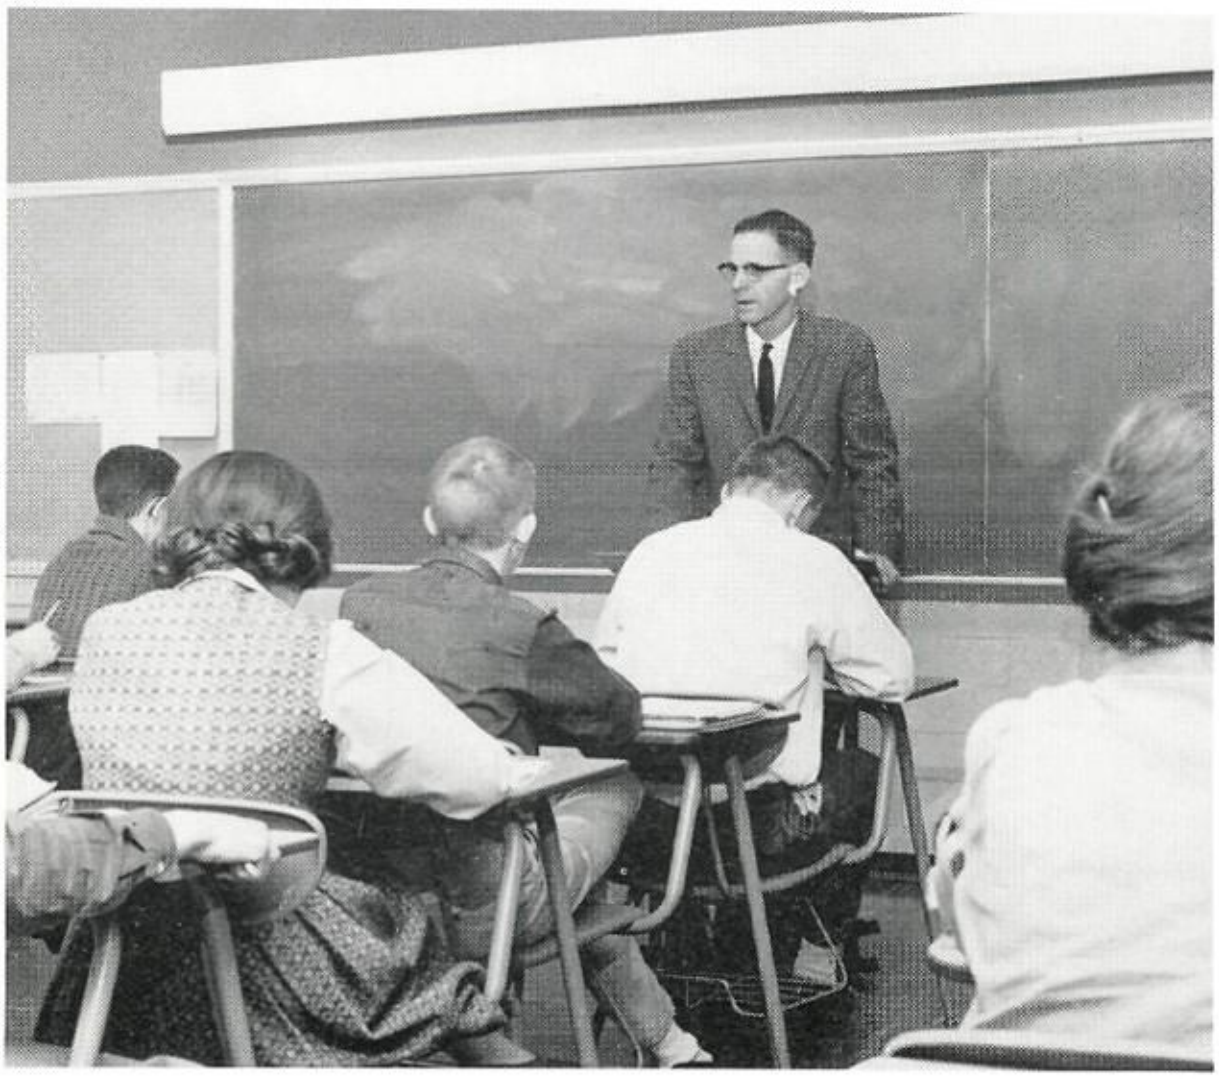
New equipment and laboratories have added much to Greencastle High School's Science Department. With the new building, science students can learn by performing numerous experiments in the spacious classrooms and laboratories. Science courses offered at G.H.S. include Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Physical Science, and a special Science Project class. Mr. Eugene Akers, head of the department, reported that nearly 210 students took science courses this year.

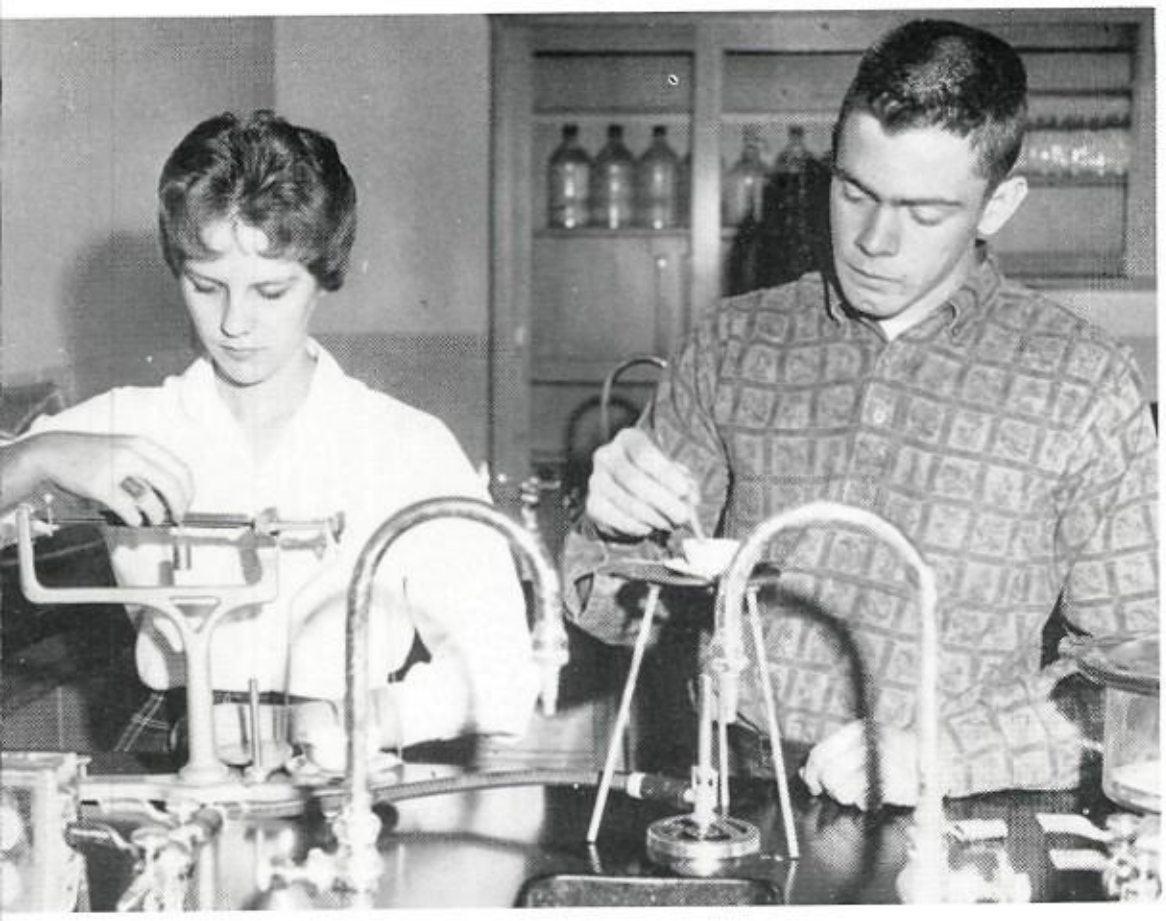
General Math, Algebra, Advanced Algebra, Plane Geometry, Solid Geometry, Analytic Geometry, and Trigonometry are the courses offered by the Math Department. According to Mr. Harold Hardman, head of the department, 250 students were enrolled in mathematics.

Young Mathematicians Strive To Achieve New Skills And Perfections

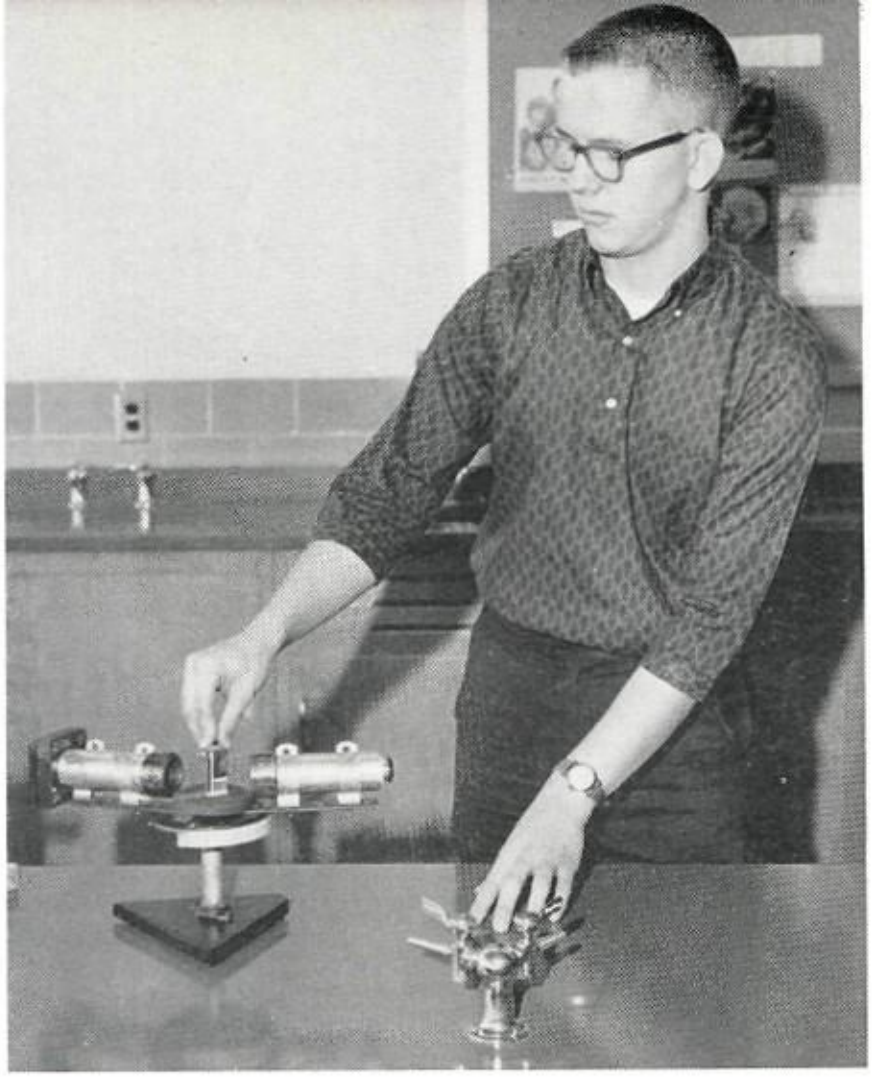


"Tomorrow, class, we will have a test over chapters 10-20," Mr. Hardman tells his advanced algebra students.

"Yes, Steve, it is more complicated than $1 + 3 = 5$."



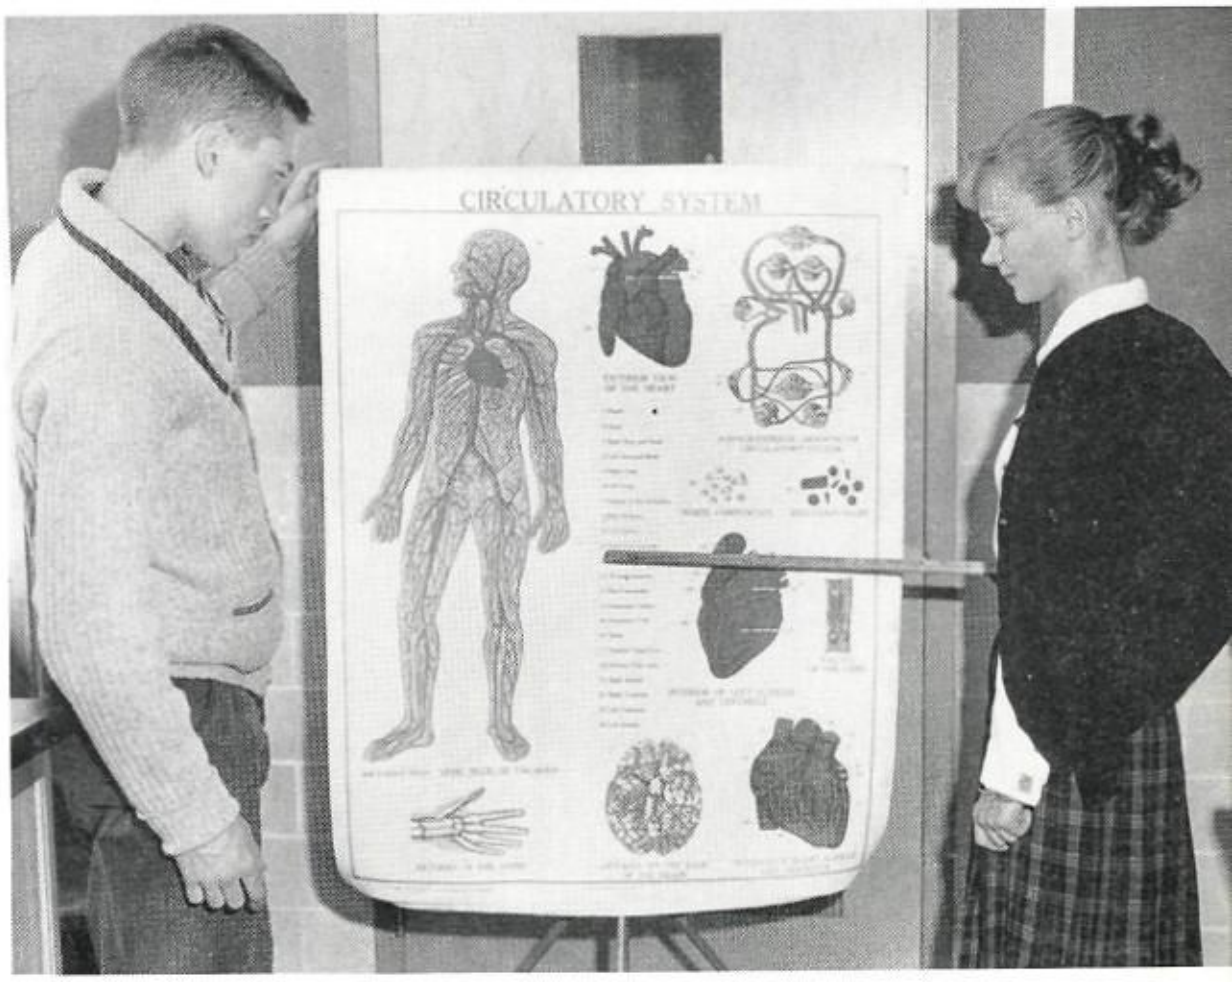
Chemistry students Sally Swope and Steve Jones measure the water content of crystals.



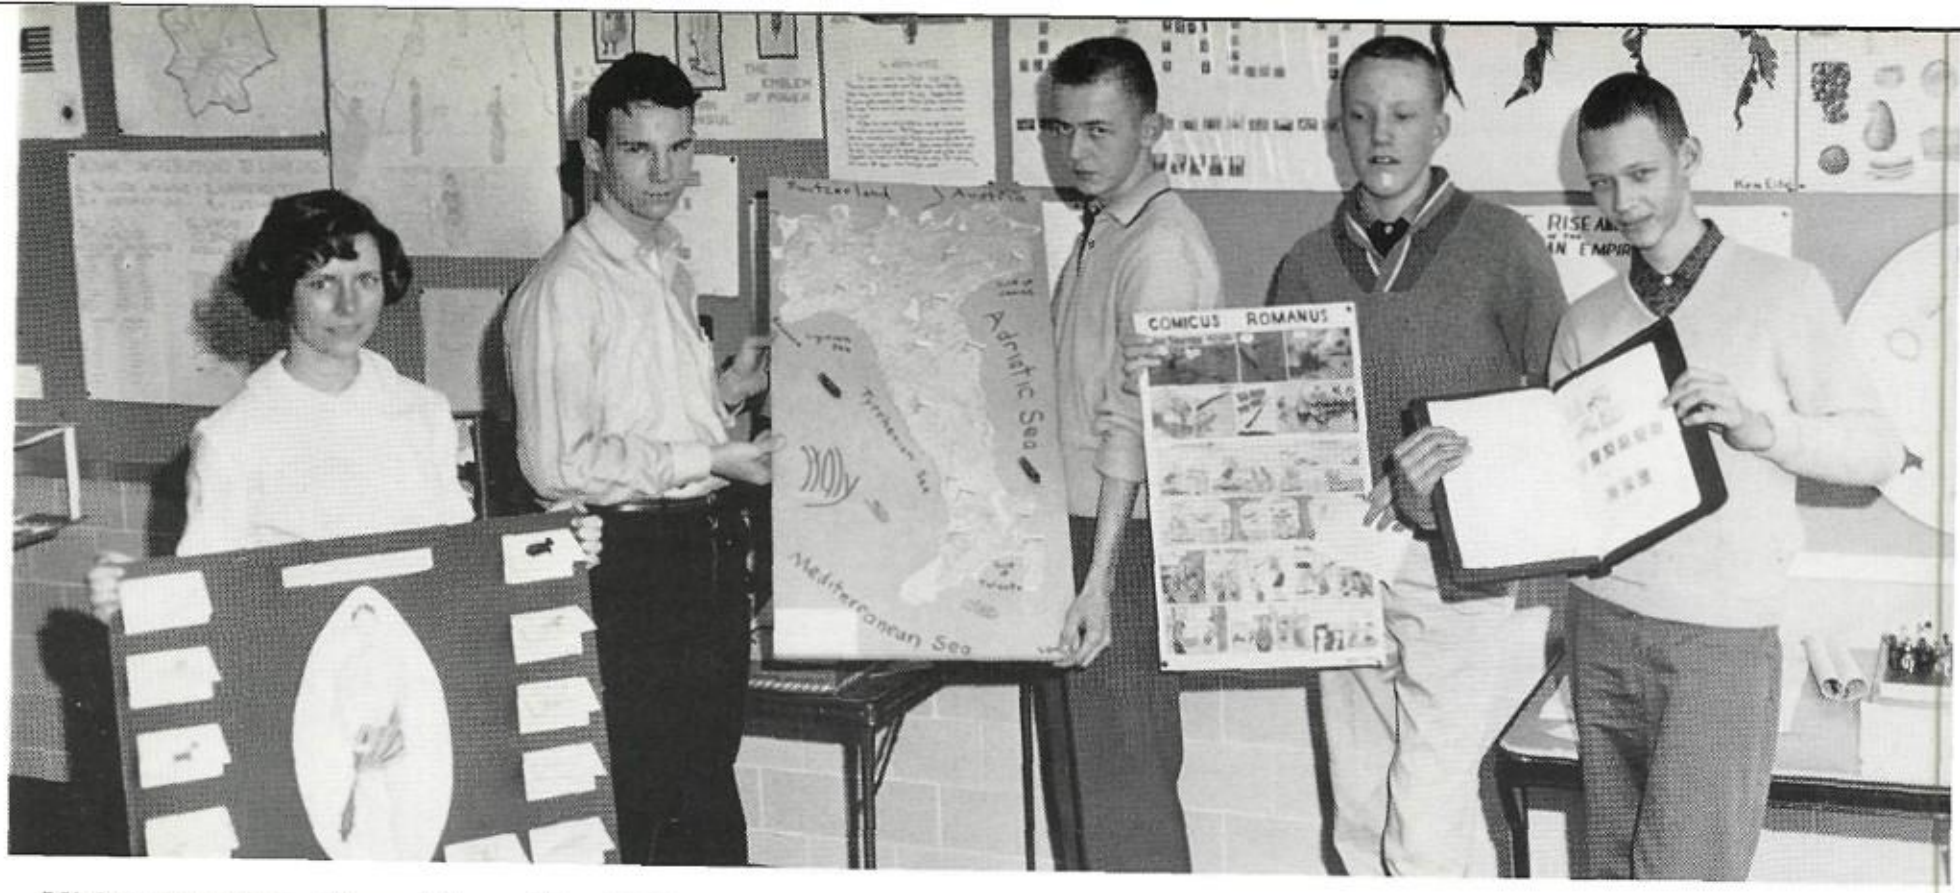
Dinty Moore displays his own project — a Spectroscope, which breaks up light into its rays — to the advanced science class.

Outstanding Students Attempt To Fulfill Scientific Needs For The Future

Mike and Jerry get a "big charge" from the Physics Department's Winehurst machine, which — by the way — gives off static electricity.

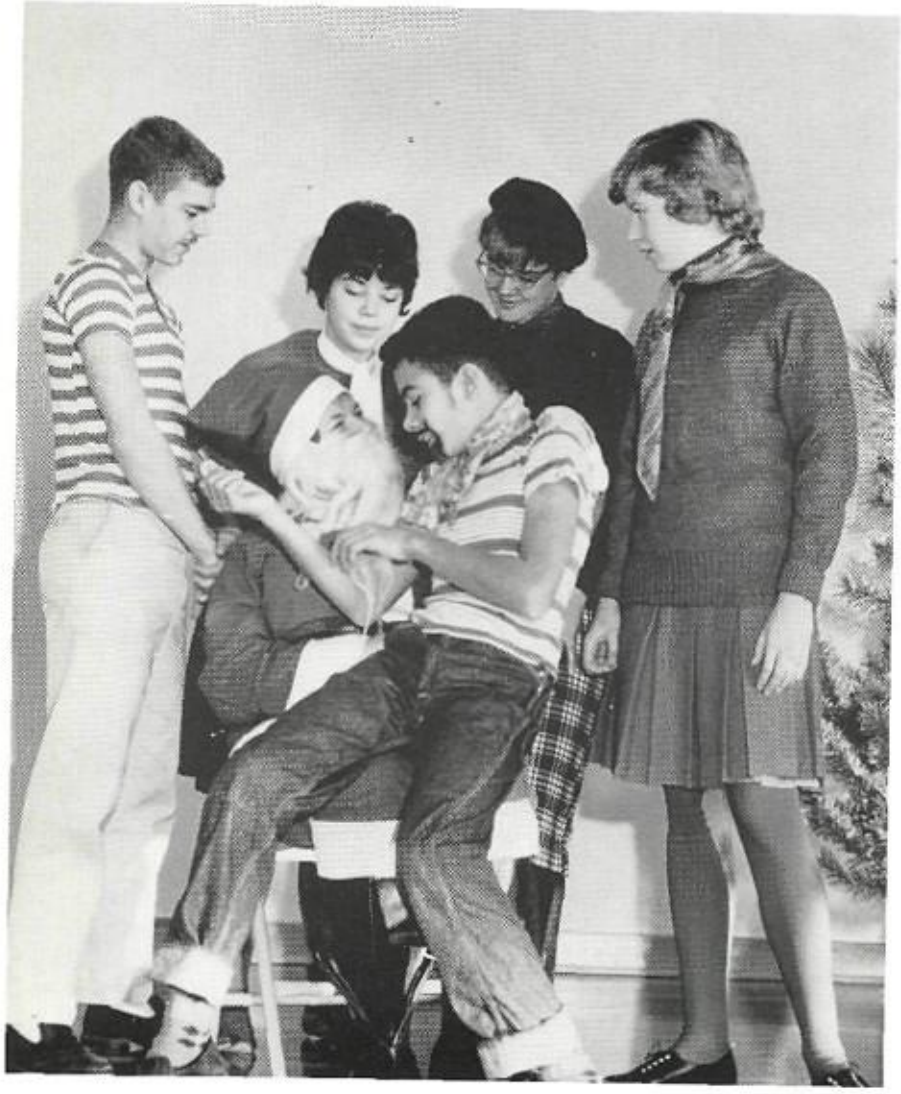


Judy Carwell explains the circulatory system to biology student Charles Sprague.

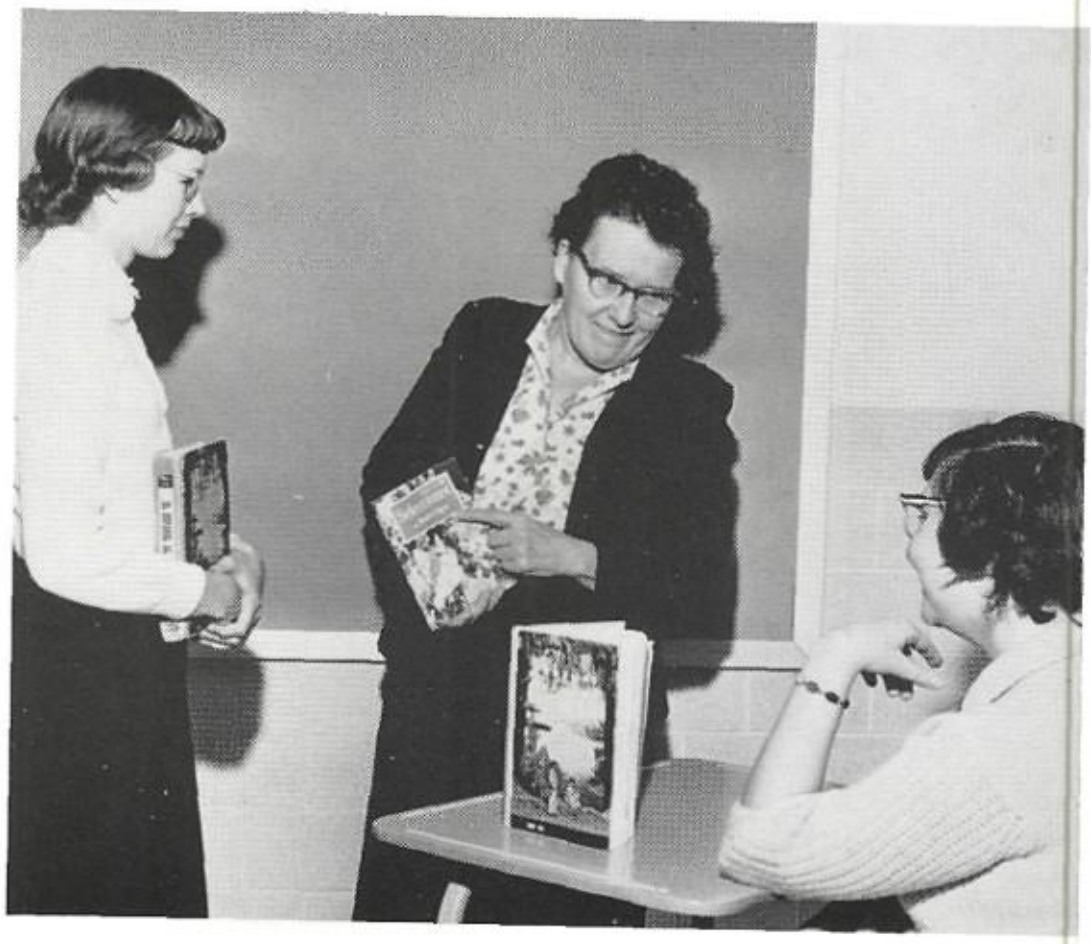


Mickey Longden, Steve Baker, Jim Kridler, Ken Gass, and Clark Norton finally complete their Latin club projects.

Foreign Language Classes Inspire Students To Take An Interest In World Affairs



At the French Club Initiation Steve Cox tells Santa Claus what he wants for Christmas. David Jones, Kay Johnson, Pam Reiling, and Judy Colby wait in line to see the old gentleman.



Mrs. Stewart points out to Rebecca Collins and Karen McCammon that this edition of The Reader's Digest is written in Spanish.

Three foreign languages — El Espanol, atina, and Le Francais — are offered at .H.S. Approximately 125 students make p the language department, which is headed y Miss Minna Mae Bartley. Pupils learn ot only vocabularies and grammar but also ne customs and the history of the foreign ountry.

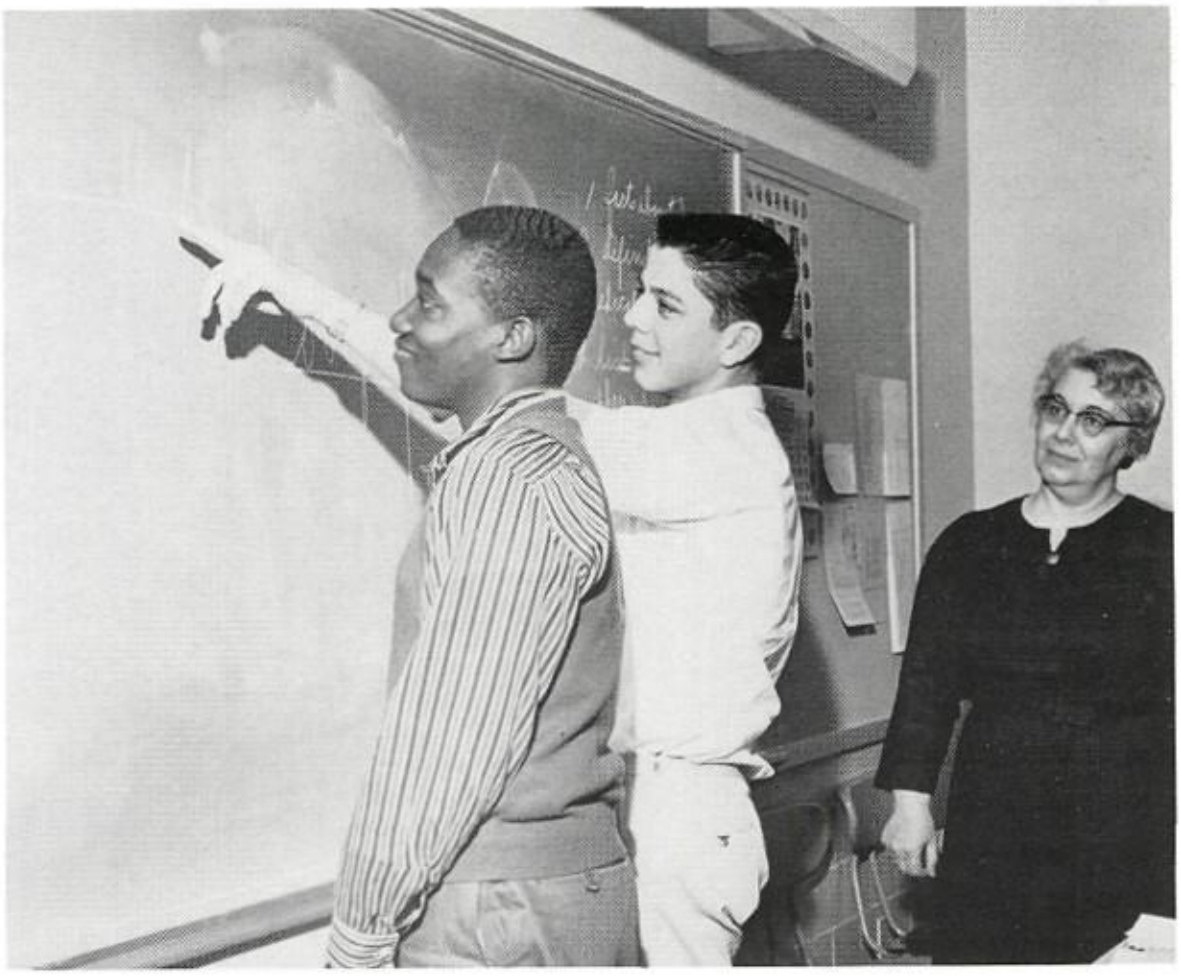
Offered all four years, the art classes nable students to develop their skills and each them the fundamentals of drawing as ell as the complete use of the kiln. The 50 tudents enrolled in art courses are instruct- d by Miss Margaret Curd.



"You see, Leonard," says Steve, " 'will be' has to be the verb." Mrs. Gooch is close by to make the necessary corrections.

English Presents A Challenge For Students To Become Well-Educated Citizens

"But, Mrs. Garriott, what did I do wrong?" Jim Beatty, Ann Childs, and Bob Irwin seem to be happier with their grades than Mary Kaye is.

Rose Zeller, Virginia Berry, Terry Crousure, and DeWayne Higgins wait for Jim Earnshaw to put his clay model in the kiln.

Homemakers Acquire Skills And Knowledge

Mrs. Johnson explains to her home economics girls the importance of making a good home.

The Home Economics Department also boasts new equipment and spacious rooms in the new building. Here girls learn basic cooking and sewing methods under the direction of Miss Elizabeth McClure and Mrs. Louise Johnson.

Training in industrial arts gives boys a chance to put skill and knowledge to work. Courses offered in this department, under the head of Mr. John McCullough, are printing, drafting, woodwork, auto mechanics, metal shop, vocational building trades, and vocational machine shop. Diversified cooperative education is under the direction of Mr. Harold Stewart.

"That's pretty good, Bobbie Jo," says Jo Ellen. "Give me another piece!" Marsha Twigg, Linda Nelson, and Ruth Hartman must be dieting.

Kay Simmerman usually irons more difficult pieces than this sheet.

Industrial Arts Classes Keep Hands Busy

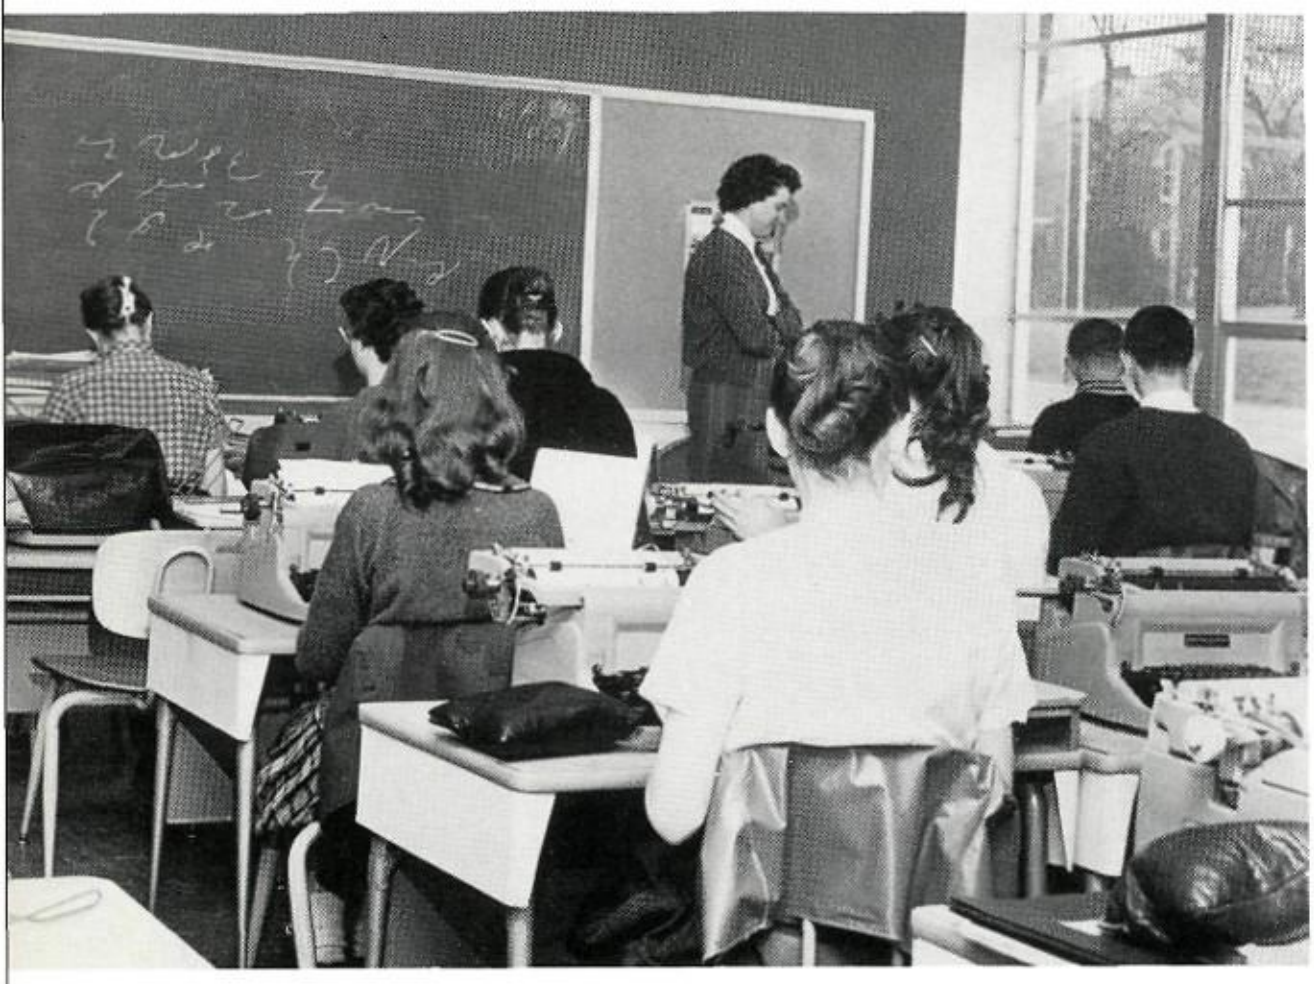
Commercial Courses Prepare Future Businessmen



Practice makes perfect in Mrs. Bertram's typing class.

Mrs. Lynch shows Rita, editor, as well as the class, the layout sheet for the front page of the Ink Pot.

The commercial department prepares the students at GHS for both college and business positions. Fifty per cent of the student body is enrolled in some course in this department. The courses include typing, shorthand, office practice, bookkeeping, general business, and business arithmetic. Mr. See is the head of the business department.

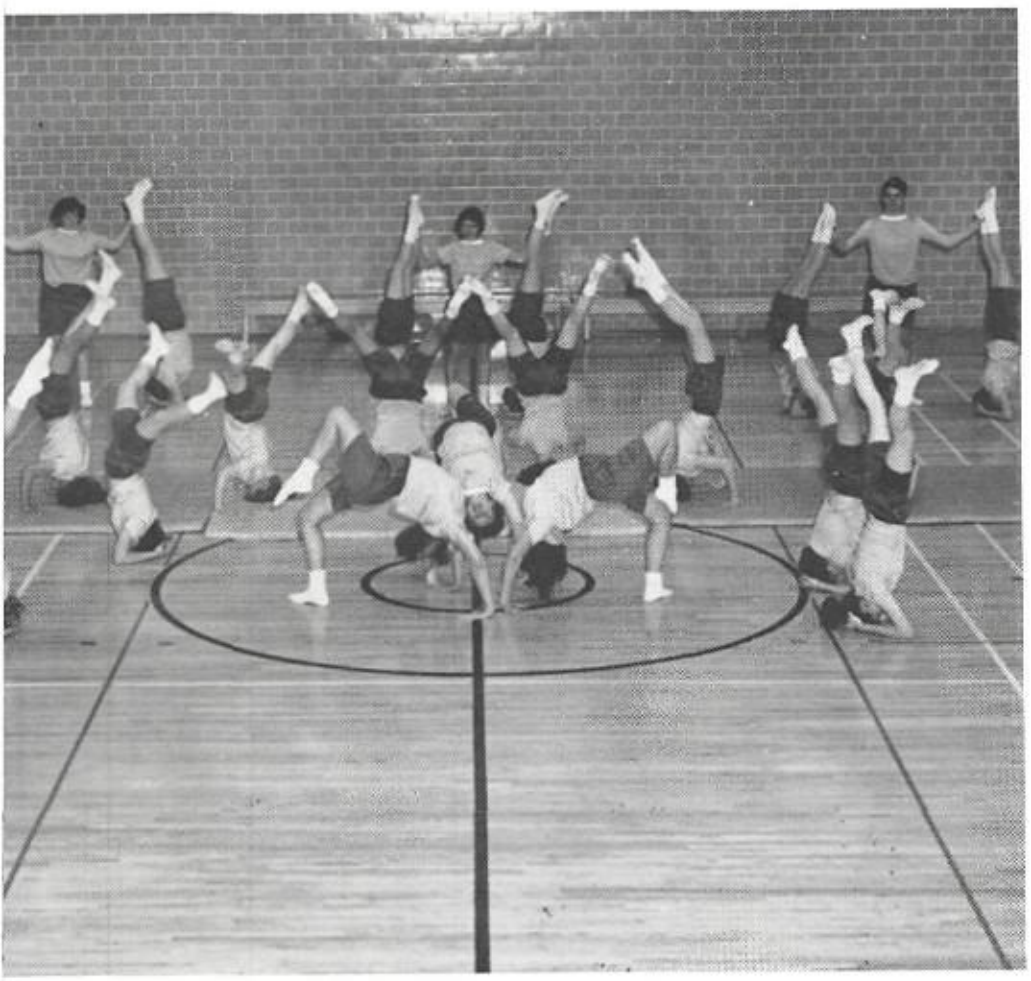
The Journalism class keeps busy learning about newspapers, editing the Ink Pot, and writing high school columns for the local newspapers. From their textbooks students learn to make good headlines and to write a variety of newspaper articles.

Under the leadership of Mr William Craig, student drivers are carefully instructed. Besides receiving "on the road" training, students learn many helpful hints from movies and lectures. One hundred and fifty student drivers annually receive training.

Bobbie Jo and Julie get practical experience under the supervision of Mrs. Lewis.

Students watch as Mr. Craig explains driving techniques.

T.V. Aids Civics Class; Athletes Go Head Over Heels.



Nice work, girls!

Just as easy as "1-2-3-UP" !

Approximately 350 students are enrolled in the gym classes, which Freshmen and Sophomores are required to take. Under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Hanna and Mr. James Bates, the girls and the boys learn good sportsmanship as well as the fundamentals of several sports and games. Basketball, baseball, ping-pong, volleyball, tumbling, and softball are among the sports offered to girls; track, football, tumbling, basketball, and baseball are among those offered in the boys' gym classes.

Mr. Glenn Skelton heads the history department which includes 300 students. Besides U. S. History, which is required for juniors, and Civics and Economics, required for seniors, World History and World Geography are offered.

Civics students are taught by the new Airborne Television program.

Malinda, Amy, Kay, and Bob attend the Book Fair.

Clubs Grant Services To Community

Amy feeds Mark Huckleberry at hospital.

G.H.S. Clubs not only play an im portant role in the school activities bu also in community projects. At Thanks giving and Christmas several of th clubs furnish families with baskets o food, clothing, and toys.

This year the Y-Teen and Hi-Y or ganizations furnished baskets of foo at Thanksgiving to two families in th Greencastle vicinity. They also gav toys and clothes to the same familie during the Christmas holiday.

The F.H.A. provided a Thanks giving basket to another family of th community. At Christmas the grou obtained the names of several welfar children and purchased clothes for them

Hi-Y members — Kenny Best, Steve Akers, Art Hotop, and Fred Wilbur — pack Christmas basket.

Kathryn and Martha are among the many Y-Teens who work at the hospital after school.

Sally Swope, Harriett Williams, Brenda Fritzinger, and Ora Lou Grimes prepare toys for Y-Teen Christmas gift.

Top Entertainers Present Convos

Among the outstanding convocations presented to the G.H.S. student body this year were the ones given by Mr. Rub-Sam, Mr. Douglas Ferguson, and "Nutchuk".

Mr. Rub-Sam, sponsored by the Petroleum Industries of Indiana, presented the convocation, "Magic Barrel," to the student body. He produced from his magic barrel many products made of crude oil and natural gas.

Another interesting convocation was "Safety on the Highways", presented by Douglas Ferguson from the Nationwide Insurance Company. Mr. Ferguson stressed the importance of safe driving by having students demonstrate the proper procedure of driving techniques.

Simeon Oliver, an Eskimo better known as "Nutchuk", also spoke to G.H.S. about his home state, Alaska. He told many interesting facts about Alaska's history, traditions, and people.

Nutchuk helps Marianne with an Eskimo parky.

Thespians Present "Ladies In Retirement"

Directors, Stage Crew, and Cast relax. Seated: Mr. John Franklin, Miss Gertrude Slack, T. Pehan, S. Nickerson, K. Johnson, A. Nanovsky. Standing: R. Lyon, D. Stout, M. B. Frazier, C. Moore, B. Bergmann, A. King, K. McCammon, K. Gass, M. Smith, J. Hammond, S. Pearson.

Murder, love, suspense, intrigue — all these were portrayed in "Ladies i Retirement", a three-act psychological melodrama, presented by the Thespia Society on November 3 and 4.

The story centered around an ex-actress Lenora Fiske and her housekeepe Ellen Creed, who lived in a house on the Thames River in England. Affairs o the household became complicated by the visit of Ellen's feebleminded sister Emily and Louisa, and by the appearance of her nephew Albert Feather, a crook.

The setting was made very authentic by the use of many antiques, includ ing lamps, a pipe organ, a desk, and pictures. To complete the stage set, the stage crew, under the direction of John Franklin, created a huge fireplace complete with an oven.

Miss Gertrude Slack, stage director was assisted by Mary Beth Frazier student director.

The cast included Jeannine Hammond, Ann Nanovsky, Sue Nickerson, Martha Smith, Terry Pehan, Kay Johnson, and Sandra Pearson.

Terry prepares for a date.

Jeannine commits the murder.

Cast Begins Rehearsals In "Gramercy Ghost"

There was usually more action than this for the cast.

Sue Nickerson soon learns the effects of the ghost (Tim Correll).

"Gramercy Ghost" came to haunt GHS on March 23 and 24 in one of he funniest most unusual comedies ever presented here.

Besides the usual production problems of where to get the costumes, ow to get all those tickets sold, and will the leading man be over the neasles in time, this play had some very strange difficulties. In order o get the proper ethereal effect, the ghosts had to have special make-up, ighting, and set construction.

The play centers around Miss Nancy Willard, who inherits a Revolution- ry War ghost named Nathaniel Coombes. The play is concerned with er efforts to get Nathaniel into heaven and to choose one of her two uitors for a husband.

Included in the cast were Nancy Borden, Larry Giddings, Marty Harm- ess, Tim Correll, Florence Peterson, Bill McCormack, Fred Wilbur, Bill Mahoney, Carol Harvey, Bunny Bergman, Harriett Williams, and Agnes King.

First week rehearsals are characterized by play books.

G.H.S. Crowns Homecoming Queen

The crowning of the Football Queen climaxed the half-time activities of the 1960 Homecoming game. Five senior candidates — Charlotte Erdmann, Sara Hanna, Kay Knoll, Kay Johnson, and Sally Sutherlin — were nominated by the football squad. The entire student body then elected the queen, Charlotte Erdmann. The girls, wearing wool sheath dresses and white chrysanthemum corsages, were escorted to the float by the class presidents. Co-Captains, Steve Akers and Bill Rader, crowned Charlotte; and Martha Craver, representing the Pep Club, presented her with a bouquet of white chrysanthemums as the band serenaded her with "A Pretty Girl Is Like A Melody."

The juke box gets more attention than anything else during the noon hour.

About 12:15 every school day music may be heard through the halls of GHS when the gym is transformed into a dance floor and the juke box is turned on.

In the 1960-61 athletic season the GHS band sponsored the majority of the sock-hops after ballgames. The proceeds from these sock-hops are to be used in purchasing the new band uniforms.

Most G.H.S. students go to sock-hops after ballgames.

Martha McKeehan, President of the band, sells Sara Hanna a ticket to the band sock-hop.

Juniors Create "Magnolia Manor"

Queen Marcia McCall and King Dick Frederick, the "big wheels" of the Prom.

May 13, 1960, became a magic night for the juniors and seniors as they were swept into the southern atmosphere of a Magnolia Manor. The couples danced in the front yard of a beautiful southern mansion to the music of Rick Sutherlin's Band from I.U. and strolled through the mystic plantation garden on the terrace of the Student Union Building.

Marcia McCall and Dick Frederick were crowned Queen and King of the 1960 Prom by junior class president, Larry Giddings, and secretary, Virginia Padgett.

Midnight replaced the romantic southern mood with laughter, entertainment, and more refreshments, as the Post Prom sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce began. A variety of acts kept everyone amazed and amused throughout the morning. Breakfast at five o'clock brought the close to another unforgettable Prom.

Clubs

Participation in clubs has become a very important part of our high school life. By planning and presenting club programs, working with members of the group, and serving the community students develop leadership, responsibility, cooperation, and creativity. These qualities will be of great value in preparing us not only for college but also for future jobs.

Through club activities we portray an exciting and enjoyable part of . . . . .

The G. H. S. Band under the direction of Don Marketto has been active in many events this year. Two of the outstanding ones were playing at the Mallory dedication and marching at the Depauw-Butler game as equals with the Depauw band. They also participated in the town's Christmas and Halloween parades.

The Band is hoping to have their long awaited uniforms by the beginning of school next fall. Among the projects the Band has had for raising money, selling World's Finest Chocolate was the most successful. Donations by Band parents, sock-hops after the home games, and the sale of adult season basketball tickets were other money making projects.

This year's officers are as follows: Martha McKeehan, president; Sara Hanna, vice-president; Sue Nickerson, secretary; Barbara Padgett, treasurer; Sally Sutherlin, Mary Beth Frazier, and David Burkett, librarians.

The 1961 yearbook staff is proud to present what it hopes is the best "Minaret" yet. After months of hard work and a little fun, this year's book was finally completed. In spite of the usual loss of blue pencils and slide rules, the headaches of counting out headlines, and the difficulty of cropping pictures, deadlines were met and the book went to press on time.

The business staff, headed by Larry Giddings, was kept busy soliciting ads, selling picture packages, and taking subscriptions for the yearbook.

The Minaret staff sincerely hopes to have portrayed "The Things We've Done In 61."

Sports

Sports play a very important role in our school life. Besides developing strong bodies, students learn fair play, quick thinking, and sportsmanship.

Greencastle High School offers a variety of sports. In addition to the ever-popular basketball and football, athletes take part in baseball, track, and cross country. Wrestling and golf, comparatively new sports at G.H.S., are gaining in popularity.

Whether enjoying sports as participants or spectators, we feel that athletics has been an important phase of. . . . . .

Life saving and beginning swimming are offered with Charlotte Erdmann, Sara Hanna, and Kay Johnson serving as the life guards for 1960-61.

Bowling at Varsity Lanes is another extracurricular activity of G.A.A. with between 50 and 60 girls participating each Monday after school. Madonna Goodman is president for this school year with Mary Beth Frazier, vice president; Susie Garriott, secretary; and Cheryl Vaughn, treasurer. Mrs. Hazel Hanna, girls' gym teacher, is the sponsor.

A reorganized Pep Club was well received at the home basketball games this year. In the new purple and gray ponchos the all-girl organization yelled their hearts out. To raise money for the ponchos and the new cheerleaders' sweaters, the club sponsored a sock hop and a bake sale. This year the responsibility of Homecoming was placed in the hands of the Pep Club and under the direction of the capable officers it was a huge success.

The officers for 1960-61 were Kay Johnson, president; Judy Terry, vice president; Candy Balay, secretary; and Jane Ann Thompson, treasurer.

And New Coaches Add Vigor To G.H.S. Sports

Win or lose the G.H.S. cheerleaders are always there to keep the school spirit at its highest. This year the cheerleaders organized a new pep club and sponsored the homecoming festivities.

While the cheerleaders are working for better sportsmanship and school spirit, the coaches work with the boys to produce winning teams by practice, practice, and more practice.

Last fall Mr. Lloyd Cooper was appointed Athletic Director succeeding Tom Goldsberry.

The gridiron Tiger Cubs started their 1960 football season very well by tieing Clinton in the first game and swamping Danville in the second. Although Martinsville was the only team that the Cubs beat during the remainder of the season, the Cubs placed well against many of the toughest teams in the state — Wiley and Garfield were rated near the top of the list. The comeback which the Cubs made against Martinsville proved that the team had great desire and ability. The performance of the team would likely have been higher had there not been excessive injuries throughout the season.

Steve Norris and Bill Rader were chosen for the all Wabash Valley Team. Steve Akers, Bill Rader, and Steve Norris received honorable mention in the W.I.C.

G.H.S. can look forward to having a fine 1961 season as there will be ten lettermen and many other underclass players returning.

A banquet climaxes the season's activities. At this time miniature gold footballs are given to all senior players and gold megaphones to senior yell leaders.

The Mothers' Club presents a gift to each senior player.

Larry Crawley, Steve Akers, Dan Burkhardt, Steve Norris, and Larry Walton led the Tiger Cubs through the 1960-61 season along with assists from Bill Rader, Rex Dunn, Chuck Jennings, Wally Bennett, Noble New, and Tom See.

Larry Crawley and Steve Norris, Tiger Cub Co-Captains, led the team to an overtime victory over the mighty Crawfordsville Athenians, 50-49. Larry's foul shots kept the Cubs up with Terre Haute Wiley, ranked number eight in the AP poll, until the last few minutes and then they fell to defeat, 50-59.

The Cubs soared to three straight victories in the Wabash Valley, defeating Spencer, previously unbeaten Gosport, and Patricksburg, before losing to Helmsburg in a double overtime.

Bill Rader, Larry Crawley, and Steve Akers were the only seniors on the squad, leaving great potential for next season's ball club.

Several B-team members will be competing next year for the open positions left by these seniors. Although the B-team won only 7 of 20 scheduled games it was a team of very young players who show great promise for the future.

An exceptional group of freshman players participated on the courts this year.

The team, winning 15 of their 20 scheduled games, concluded the season with a four team tourney victory by first defeating Brazil and then whipping Garfield in a spectacular double-overtime game.

Other "point getters" for the Cubs were Danny Burkhardt in the pole vault and high jump, Ronnie Allee and Steve Norris in the high jump and Richard Chadd in the mile. Steve Richards, Paul Harrold, and Richard Chadd, all underclassmen, are expected to strengthen this year's squad along with Danny Burkhardt and David Burkett. Richards and Burkett improved as hurdlers throughout the season.

The scor- ng is match-match-medal. Eighteen holes are layed with the first nine holes constituting one natch, the second nine the second match and the core for the entire eighteen, the medal. The natches are scored according to who wins the ole and the medal for total strokes. Both the natches and the medal are worth one point. People

In addition to acquiring knowledge and building character, another very important phase of our high school life is making friends. Through our association in work and play, we have learned to choose our friends for qualities of honesty, dependability and sincerity.

Our book is focused on people — students and teachers — who have become our friends.

Whether Freshmen, realizing for the first time that education is important, Sophomores, anxiously awaiting the next exciting year, Juniors, planning the Prom and buying class rings, or Seniors, preparing for the future and enjoying the big year — all the people of GHS have played an important role in . . . . . .

THE THINGS WE'VE DONE IN '61

We The Members Of The Class Of "61

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Larry Giddings, President; Bobbie Jo Steele, Treasurer; Virginia Padgett, Secretary; Pat Harrold, Vice-President.

As the Class of '61 entered the halls of Greencastle High School in the fall of 1957, we saw, stretched before us, four long years of hard work before we could attain our ultimate goal - graduation.

Our Freshman year was quite different from the years in junior high. We joined new clubs, participated in other extracurricular activities, and after the Sophomores initiated us, we became the "greenies" of G.H.S. Our Freshman class officers were Steve Akers, President; Bill Oberlin, Vice-President; Sally Carson, Secretary; and Bobbie Jo Steele, Treasurer.

Dissecting sharks, studying Julius Caesar, and initiating the Freshman highlighted our Sophomore year. To represent the class we elected Steve Akers, President; Dean Lancaster, Vice-President; Bobbie Jo Steele, Secretary; and Virginia Padgett, Treasurer.

As Juniors, we found ourselves one year closer to graduation. During this year, we entered the new school building, received our class rings, and presented the Prom, "Magnolia Manor," for the Seniors. Our class officers were Larry Giddings, President; Steve Jones, Vice-President; Virginia Padgett, Secretary; and Bobbie Jo Steele, Treasurer.

Our Senior year has been led by Larry Giddings, Pat Harrold, Virginia Padgett, and Bobbie Jo Steele. This year has been the busiest - yet the most fun of all - preparing for college, producing the Minaret, operating the concession stand, and planning Baccalaureate and commencement.

Although we shall not forget our four years at GHS, we are looking ahead to the next phase of our life.

Ads

For many years the citizens of Greencastle have taken an active and sincere interest in the activities of our school.

In addition to attending school functions, they cooperate with G.H.S. in the student occupational program, sponsor the Post Prom, donate their services for Career Day, and present many awards on Honor Day.

By buying ads the merchants help finance our yearbook. Thus it is largely through their assistance that we are able to portray. . . . . .

Carole,

We've been together now for quite a few years. Every year we seem to take more fun like Latin, English, and Biology. As we get older we most likely will get further apart, but I will always remember the good times we had. Loads of Luck & Love

P.S. I'll never forget the wild slumber parties!

Candy

Carol

You have been a lot of fun this year and I'm sure you will continue to be.

Luck Dick Stout

Carol - Had a lot of fun with you this year. Thanks for the rides. Have a great summer and see you next year.

Love Curtis

Carol -
You are really a nice girl and I have enjoyed knowing you. Have fun your last three years in high school! Hope you have the best of all! Have a great summer and I'll be seeing you. Good luck in everything.

Your friend,
John

Carole -

You're a real doll - ya know it? Of course you do! We've had a ball this year - espicially at the Phi Psi House. It's not enugone that gets to know the whole DePauw football team. Be good & don't do anything I'd do.

Luck & Love,

Sha

Carole -
Well, there are several things that I could say, but maybe I shouldn't. HA!
I'm still laughing about
Miss McKeehan at Tim's!
Poor Art; he's so abused!
Have a fun visit without us
next year. I'm sure it will be quieter. Be good to Bert - he needs it.
(kidding)
Lots of luck
